DEDUCTION TABLES

Weekly Paid Employees	5 - 15
-----------------------------	--------

Montserrat Social Security Fund
Weekly Rate Tables
1 January - 31 December 2026

2. Contributions are not payable on pensions of any kind whether or not the pensioned employee is still employed.
3. Additional payments (e.g. bonuses, overtime etc.) are treated as part of the gross pay in the week or month in which they are made, regardless of the period over which they were earned. This applies whether or not the additional payments are made regularly. Similarly, arrears of pay resulting from a pay increase are treated as part of the gross pay in the week or month in which they are paid.
4. Where a regular payment of wages or salary is made other than on the normal date, for example an employee who receives a bonus a week late due to absence from work, this does not change the particular weekly payment to which that bonus is to be added in calculating his weekly contributions.

Change of Pay Interval

1. When an employee's regular interval changes (e.g. from a weekly to a monthly salary) contributions at the time of the change should be made in accordance with the following general rule:
 - a. A change from weekly to monthly pay interval is treated as taking place from the date of payment of the first full month's salary. Payment for any earlier part-month is treated on a weekly basis. Any payment for a few odd days at the end of a month should be treated as a complete week.
 - b. A change from monthly to weekly pay interval is treated as taking place from the first week in the month after the last monthly payment, any earlier weekly payments being added to the last part-month payment and treated as a monthly payment.

For further clarification of the above please contact the Social Security Office.

Deduction of The Employee's Share of the Contribution from His Pay

1. The employer is liable to pay both his and the employee's share of the total contributions, but he is entitled to deduct the employee's share of the contribution from the particular payment of wages or salary on which a contribution is due.
2. The employer's right to recover the employee's share of the contribution is limited and normally he cannot recover the contributions after the particular wages or salary has been paid.
3. If, however, an employer discovers that through a bona fide error he has deducted less than the correct amount on a payment to the employee, he can recover the amount under-deducted from subsequent payment of wages during the same year; provided that prior notification is given to the employee and that these additional deductions do not exceed the normal deduction.

Employers Records of Wages and Contributions

1. Every employer is required to maintain a record, showing in respect of each person employed by him
 - a. The date on which such employment commenced and where applicable, the date of termination of employment.
 - b. The date and amount of each payment of wages and salary
 - c. Employee's share of the contributions
 - d. Employer's share of the contributions
 - e. Total contribution payable for each week / month

Power of The Social Security Inspectors

Under the Social Security Act, certain officers have been appointed as Inspectors. Inspectors hold a certificate of appointment and are required to produce this when applying for admission to business premises. They have power to enter, at reasonable times, any premises where they have reasonable cause to believe that persons are employed, including premises exclusively for residential purposes. They may make enquiries, require the production of documents relating to contribution or liability to contribute to the Social Security Fund and make copies of such documents or make extracts.

Offences and Penalties

1. An employer who, without reasonable cause, obstructs an Inspector in the exercise of his duties under the Social Security Act, or fails to pay contributions, for which he is liable under the Act, renders himself liable, on summary conviction, to a fine or other penalty.
2. Where an employer is in any doubt as to his responsibilities with regard to payment of Social Security contributions or any related matter, he should consult the Social Security Office for clarification
